

Henry County Senior Center Rules of Participation

As determined by the Henry County Senior Center Trustee Board and The Henry County Commissioners, the following medical, social, or behavioral problems or conditions may limit participation at Henry County Senior Center.

1. Substance abuse at Henry County Senior Center buildings or vehicles.
2. Use of obscenities, racial or ethnic slurs - including verbal, written or gestures.
3. Conditions that severely inhibit eating or swallowing - HCSC will provide home delivered meals and other homebased services.
4. Behavior that does not support the friendly attitude of the Henry County Senior Center.
5. Incontinence - if not properly controlled.
6. Offensive body odor caused by poor hygiene or other issues.
7. Continuous displays of anger, aggression or extreme emotion which result in the disruption of Henry County Senior Center or the deterioration of the emotional health of the participants and/or staff.

Interpretation and enforcement of the Rules of Participation is regulated and at the discretion of the Executive Director of the Henry County Senior Center. For the action steps in case of an offense, please see the Center's Policies and Procedures.

I agree to receive services under the Rules of Participation of Henry County Senior Center.
